LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Work for Wages—is an old saying among workmen. An honest laborer gives his employer work for his money, and requires nothing more. An eye-servant is a dishonest man, for he robs his employer of the time he belongs to him. Government clerks consider that they work hard enough for their wages; but the Secretary of the Interior differs in opinion from most of them, and his opinion by issuing an order that all clerks in his Department shall go to work at 8 o'clock, A. M. and cease at 4 P. M. This is well enough if it continues; but we are much inclined to believe that the clerks cannot last long. Clerks generally kick against it when the weather becomes a little warmer, and the Secretary doubtless return to the old rule; and on the days are cool and pleasant, the clerks will be forgotten. Mechanics can work through the long summer day, but it is very healthy for tender clerks.

That Earthquake—There is a cause for every effect, and many of our citizens have been endeavoring to account for the earthquake that was supposed to have been felt in this city. The most probable cause was given by an old friend, who says it was caused by three gentlemen of aldermanic proportions, who occupy upper rooms in a government building. They have been in the habit of losing their spoons, and the arrival of a messenger with several "yaller kivers" are them the shakes! The fit being communicated to the building and grounds adjacent, caused the aforesaid rumor of an earthquake.

Fatal Accident—A very respectable looking man named P. Kean was killed at the Navy Yard yesterday. He was engaged in unloading a vessel in which was a number of piles. While removing these piles, one of them rolled from the heap, and knocked him down and passed over him, crushing his head to atoms. He leaves a large family in Ireland, his native country.

Street Beggars—A squad of those lazy, able-bodied fellows, have reached Washington and commenced business.

It was thought that the street organists were sufficient; but what can we say when an attack is made upon us by the combined force of street organists and beggars. We hope the police will attend to them. Put them up; they have no license!

Good Move—The Clerks in the employ of our Merchants have determined to form an association for their mental improvement. We have no doubt they will be assisted in this movement by our citizens. Such an association has been wanted in Washington for years past!

The Marine Band will perform on the President's grounds every Saturday and Wednesday evening, beginning on Saturday evening next, at an hour before sunset.—The performances will continue for two weeks.—Union.

Police Reports—Wm. Mullen, assault and battery; case dismissed. George Myers, keeping store open on Sunday; ruled for trial. Jno. King, drunk; workhouse 30 days. Gilbert Eddleton, assault and resisting an officer; case dismissed. Ann M. Crockett, open profanity; paid costs. F. Lopping, assault; gave security. Lydia Miles, profanity; paid costs. Geo. Thompson, breach of the peace; gave security. U. F. McDermott, assault and battery; gave security for court. T. Cavanaugh, huckstering without license; fined. David Rollerson, drunk; workhouse 30 days. Susan Anderson, drunk and disorderly; workhouse 30 days. W. Gorman, drunk; workhouse 30 days.

The Utica (N. Y.) Gazette of the 21st instant, says that there are in the lunatic asylum in that city about thirty patients whose insanity is traceable to the spirit rappers.

Chickering, the Boston piano man, who was hired recently, has purchased 100,000 feet of land on which he will build a new and extensive establishment four stories high.

A RARITY—Barnum is now in full chase after a woman for exhibition, as the race has become quite a rarity since it has been superseded by the ladies.
